

people's trust for endangered species

Who am I quiz- leaders Q&A sheet

I am the world's second largest living cat, after the tiger

My scientific name is Panthera leo

My long dark mane attracts the females

I am a Lion

I can live in rainforest and desert habitats

I drag my prey up a tree to eat to keep it safe from other predators

My coat colour varies from pale yellow to deep gold, and sometimes black, and is patterned with black spots called rosettes

I am an African leopard

I am the most endangered canine/wild dog with only 500 of my kind left in Ethiopia

I live in a pack and can have up to 6 pups in a year

I have a number of relatives around the world including a gray kind that howls

I am an Ethiopian wolf

I live in most of Africa and parts of the Middle East

The English name is derived from the Hindi 'chita', meaning 'spotted one'

I can run faster than any other land animal— as fast as 112 to 120 km/h or 70 to 75 mph

I am a Cheetah

I am different to other wild dogs in that I have only four toes on each foot, unlike other dogs, which have five toes.

I have big ears and a patchy coat.

People also know me as the Cape hunting dog, painted dog, painted wolf, painted hunting dog, spotted dog, or ornate wolf. Do you know my other name?

I am an African wild dog

Find out more at www.savingcatsanddogs.org