

Dormouse Monitoring 2013

A one day conference organised by People's Trust for Endangered Species (PTES) for monitors and volunteers who contribute towards the National Dormouse Monitoring Programme (NDMP) and anyone interested in dormice.

9.00 am	REGISTRATION and TEA/COFFEE
10.00 am	Introduction by Chair	Tony Mitchell-Jones (Trustee PTES formerly Natural England)
10.10 am	The NDMP: Where it all began	Pat Morris (Dormouse researcher formerly at Royal Holloway; University of London)
10.40 am	How do you get voluntary help at an NDMP site?	Lorna Griffiths (Lincolnshire Dormouse Group)
11.05 am	TEA/COFFEE
11.40 am	How can the NDMP be coordinated at County level?	Hazel Ryan (Kent Mammal Group)
12.05 pm	Managing volunteers at NDMP sites.	Sarah Bird & Sue Tatman (Northwest Dormouse Partnership)
12.30 pm	NDMP Trends and Analysis	Ian White (PTES)
12.50 pm	LUNCH
2.00 pm	NDMP forum: an overview	Nida Al-Fulaij (PTES)
2.20 pm	Managing for dormice in conifer woods	Roger Trout (Dormouse researcher formerly at Forestry Commission)
2.45 pm	Long term coppice management at Bradfield woods	Simone Bullion (Suffolk Wildlife Trust)
3.10 pm	TEA/COFFEE
3.45 pm	Practical Woodland management at Pantperthog	Jack Grasse (NDMP site Pantperthog)
4.10 pm	Questions to speaker panel	Jill Nelson (Chief Executive PTES)
4.30 pm	Open discussion	Jill Nelson/Tony Mitchell-Jones
4.50 pm	Close chair	Tony Mitchell-Jones
5.00 pm	CLOSE	